Public Hours
January–March: Friday–Monday, 11 am–4 pm
April–October: Thursday–Monday, 11 am–6 pm
November–December: Thursday–Monday, 11 am–4 pm
Dia:Beacon is closed on Tuesdays and Wednesdays throughout the year, and Thursdays in January, February, and March.

Directions
Dia:Beacon is located sixty miles north of Manhattan and is within walking distance of the Metro-North Railroad Beacon Station on the Hudson Line. Approximately ninety miles south of Albany, Dia:Beacon is easily reached from the New York State Thruway and Interstate 84.

School Groups
School groups (K–12) require notice of their visit three weeks in advance. K–12 school tours are offered Mondays and Fridays throughout the year as well as Thursdays from April through December. Groups must not exceed forty students and one chaperone is required for every ten students. Self-guided tours are not permitted for K–12 school groups.

School Tours
A Dia museum guide will provide a one-hour guided tour for groups of ten. Teachers and chaperones must accompany students at all times and are responsible for their students during the entire visit. Please arrive fifteen minutes early to allow time to process admission and leave items in coat check. Please have students divided into groups of ten ahead of time. Special arrangements must be made in advance to extend the time inside the museum following the one-hour guided tour.

School Group Admission
The admission rate is paid in one transaction at the time of the visit.
General $10
Student $6

Cancellations
To reschedule or cancel your reservation, please give notice 48 hours in advance. Every effort will be made to reschedule your tour and any prepayment will be transferred to the new date. If notice is not provided 48 hours in advance, you will be charged a fee of $80 per scheduled guide (one guide for every group of ten students).

Late Arrivals
School tours begin promptly on the scheduled time; late arrivals will receive a shortened tour. If you are running late for a scheduled tour, call 845 231 0823. Gallery guides are not required to wait more than thirty minutes for the arrival of a group.

Bus Parking
All bus arrivals must be scheduled ahead of time. Buses can drop off and pick up passengers on the east side of the building and will be directed to the upper bus parking lot.

Lunch
There are no student lunch facilities in the museum. In good weather, groups may eat lunch in the picnic area. Please make arrangements to use the picnic area when you book your tour. Boxed lunches may be ordered to go for groups of 25 or less, please contact info@homespunfoods.com for more information.

More Information
Do not touch the works of art.

All backpacks, bags larger than 11 x 14 inches must be left on the bus or checked in coat check.

Food, drinks (including water bottles), are prohibited inside the galleries.

We ask that guests use pencils when taking notes or sketching. Pens, pastels, paint, and other wet media are prohibited.

Flash cameras, tripods, and selfie sticks are prohibited.

For more information, e-mail goupstours@diaart.org.